

PRE-LISTENING

There are some vocabularies that will appear on the recording. Let's guess the meaning of each vocabulary by dragging its meaning equivalent to the vocabulary.

Sort elements

- to make somebody/yourself feel unhappy, anxious or annoyed
- a house, especially a large or impressive one
- having or causing problems or difficulties

tough (adj):
upset (verb):
residence (noun):

Listen to Sandra and Tom talking about the facilities on campus and answer the questions.

WRITE NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS AND/OR A NUMBER

--

Question 1: Which floor is the library coffee shop on?

Question 2: What does Sandra like to do there?

Question 3: Where is the silent zone?

Question 4: Where does Tom live?

Question 5: How many people live in Sandra's house?

Question 6: What does Tom often do near Sandra's house?

VOCABULARY PRACTICE

Let's listen to the recording again and fill in blanks below

--

Tom: Hey, Sandra, how 's it going? What do you think of the 1 ?

Sandra: I think it's all 2 . Have you been to the coffee shop in the 3 , yet?

Tom: No, I haven't. Where is it?

Sandra: It's on the 4 floor. You know, you can have a break without actually 5 the library. It's really great to meet your friends there.

Tom: Yeah. That's an excellent idea. And it means you've got somewhere to chat without 6 people who want to study. I can't 7 when other people are talking. I usually go upstairs to work in the 8 zone, on the fourth floor.

Sandra: Oh, do you? Is it difficult to study at home, then? Where do you live?

Tom: I'm living in a hall of 9 on campus.

Sandra: Oh, right. It must be 10 trying to study in your room.

Tom: Yeah ... It's pretty noisy, especially at the 11 . Are you living on campus, too?

Sandra: Yes. I'm on campus, but there are only four people in our house. So it tends to be a bit 12 . It's at the end of the footpath, not far from the Sports Centre.

Tom: Oh, right. I know where you mean. I play football on the 13 next to the Sports Centre. I 14 quite a lot of time around there.

Sandra: Well, next time you're in that part, let me know. You can come 15 for coffee.