

I. Match the columns to form correct sentences.

1. There was heavy...
 2. It is recommendable to have lots of water specially now with this high...
 3. She is definitely a light...
 4. We enjoyed the mild...
 5. My brother is a deep...
 6. It's difficult to understand Maria as she has a strong...
 7. Unfortunately, he has a low...
 8. I've known Sarah for 15 years and is my close...
 9. John's boss is happy with him because he is a hard...
 10. I didn't like that weak...
- a. ...temperature making everyone feel hot.
 - b. ...worker and always finishes his tasks in the office.
 - c. ...salary and has to find a second job.
 - d. ...sleeper and never wakes up at night even with a tremor.
 - e. ...coffee; I felt nothing and it looked like tea!
 - f. ...traffic on the way to school so I arrived late to class.
 - g. ...weather during our picnic, neither hot nor cold, just nice.
 - h. ...friend; we do everything together.
 - i. ...sleeper and wakes up easily at the lowest sound.
 - j. ...accent when she speaks English.