

Worksheet

Modal verbs

By

Kevin Gallardo

Read the sentences, identify modal verbs, and write it next to the sentence.

- She and her boyfriend should arrive by noon.
- They must finish their homework before playing soccer.
- We could go to the movies if you finish your homework.
- He might come to the party tonight with the whole team.
- You may borrow my book if you promise to return it before Sunday.

Fill up the blanks with the appropriate modal verb from the list: would, may, could, can, might, must, will, shall, should.

If I finish my work early, I _____ go for a walk with my sister.

You _____ study harder if you want to graduate from high school.

She _____ speak Spanish and English fluently.

We _____ visit our grandparents next Saturday.

They _____ be at the concert by 7 PM.