Activity 1:

1 Listen and read.

Ann: Hi, Mi. Long time no see. How're you doing?

Mi: I'm fine, thanks. By the way, we moved to a new house in a suburb last month.

Ann: Oh, that's why I haven't seen you in the Reading Club very often.

Mi: Yes. We're still busy moving in, you know.

Ann: How's your new neighbourhood?

Mi: It's much bigger than our old one. The streets are wider, and there are fewer people.

Ann: What about the facilities?

Mi: It has all the things we need: shopping malls, parks, and hospitals. And there's a craft village near our house.

Ann: Great! How're your new neighbours?

Mi: They're nice. Last Sunday when I was looking for the way to the bus station, a lady came and showed me the way. I think we will get on with them.

Ann: That reminds me of the time our family moved to Viet Nam. We didn't know where to buy stuff for our house, and the new neighbours in the community gave us useful advice. I guess you like your new place.

Mi: Sure. I really love where I live now.

Activity 2:

Community helpers are essential individuals who work tirelessly to improve the well-being of our communities. These everyday heroes perform a wide range of vital tasks, contributing to the overall functioning of society. Examples of community helpers include plumbers, carpenters, traffic police officers, doctors, teachers, drivers, and firefighters. Their roles vary significantly, but they all share a common goal: to make a positive impact on the lives of others. Whether it's a home health aide providing personal care services, a customer service representative assisting customers, or a 911 dispatcher handling emergency calls, these professionals play crucial roles in maintaining the fabric of our neighborhoods. Teachers, too, are community helpers, delivering instruction to students and shaping their understanding of various subjects. Through their dedication, community helpers strengthen our bonds, enhance our capabilities, and foster a sense of connection within our neighborhoods.
