

Questions 1:

You and your friends are attending a Merdeka celebration. Read the passage below and correct the adverbs and adjectives in the passage based on the choices given in the box. The empty brackets are for adverbs while the empty underlined words are for adjectives.

The morning of Merdeka Day was _____ and clear. Ali and his friends were eagerly preparing for the celebrations. They quickly wore their traditional outfits and set off for the _____ parade. The streets were [] decorated with _____ flags, and the air was filled with joyful cheers.

As they reached the Padang Merdeka, they saw a marching band [] playing _____ songs. Ali felt connected to his heritage. His friend, Siti, pointed to the large stage where Tunku Abdul Rahman made his Merdeka speech. The crowd [] waved their flags, celebrating their country's independence.

After the parade, they [] joined in the games and _____ activities. The delicious aroma of local food filled the air, and they happily indulged in the treats. As the day came to an end, Ali and his friends sat by the calm river, reflecting on the memorable day, feeling [] united as one people

Adverbs

gracefully	beautifully	cheerfully	gratefully	enthusiastically
------------	-------------	------------	------------	------------------

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Adjectives

bright	lively	colourful	festive	patriotic
--------	--------	-----------	---------	-----------

- A. _____
- B. _____
- C. _____
- D. _____
- E. _____

Part 2:

Sort the words below into adjectives or adverbs.

Proudly	Quickly	Eagerly	Happily	Lonely
Silly	Lively	Lovely	Beautifully	Friendly

Adverbs	Adjectives