LIVEWORKSHEETS

Change the words in the brackets into their correct form!

To tell you the truth, I prefer mountains to beaches because I can't stand getting sunburned. Being at the beach makes me feel _____ (1. uncomfortable) hot and tired. When I go to the beach, I have to bring sunglasses and waterproof sunblock. I have to apply the sunblock before I leave so that my skin can _____ (2. complete) absorb it.

Last weekend, I went to Anyer with my family. Before we left, Mom _____ (3. careful) packed a big picnic bag with bottled drinks, sandwiches and towels. She told me to be responsible for the bag but I _____ (4. stupid) forgot to put it in the trunk. I was too busy with my camera, so when my mom found out at the beach there was no bag, she looked at me _____ (5. angry) but not for long.

Well, Anyer isn't as beautiful as Gili Trawangan but we had fun. As usual, Randall and Laura sprinted through the water until they fell down. It was hard to take their pictures while they were doing it, but I did it _____ (6. successful). I also took a picture of them swimming _____ (7. enthusiastic), splashing around _____ (8. excited), building sandcastles _____ (9. serious) and _____ (10. happy) collecting seashells.

Listen and write down the numbers in the circles to order the sentences as you hear them in the listening!

Mirza and Sari are talking about the beach.

◯ Mirza : The beach means sunshine and sunshine means sunburns.

◯ Sari : Really? Why?

◯ Mirza : I know. I'm not saying I hate the beach. I'm just not crazy about it. I'm very uncomfortable whent it's so hot.

◯ Sari : What's there to worry about? I'm dark already.

◯ Mirza : Well, actually I like mountains better than the beach.

◯ Sari : But there are many things we can do at the beach.

◯ Mirza : Hey, I'm not talking about skin color! You have no idea how sunburn can make you feel. It makes you sore, tired, and unable to enjoy your day at the beach properly.

◯ Sari : Mirza, do you like going to the beach?

◯ Mirza : Aren't you afraid of getting sunburned?

◯ Sari : Well, you can sit comfortably under a beach umbrella.
