

Part 1

Mom: Hi Richard! I'm home! Where are you?

Richard: Upstairs mom, in my room.

Mom: Oh Richard! Whatever have you been doing?

Richard: I've been painting my room.

Mom: Yes, I can see that. But, why did you change color halfway through?

Richard: Well, I'd done the ceiling and I'd painted one wall when I ran out of paint. So, I went to the shop for some more, but then, I realized the second pot was a slightly different color. That's why it looks a bit odd.

Mom: But, why were you painting anyway?
I thought you'd planned lots of things to do with your friends.

Richard: Oh! They were all busy in the end. And yesterday afternoon I was bored. I'd been to town for a few hours, you know, round the center. I'd done the shopping everything on your list and I'd finished all my homework. So, I decided to paint my room.

Mom: Hmm... Well, I suppose you can put some posters up.
But look at the carpet! Why didn't you cover it up?

Richard: Oh, yes! I see what you mean.

Mom: Well, I can't think about all this now.
I've had such a hard day.

Richard: Why? What happened?

Mom: Well, the meeting was difficult, and then, I had such a long journey home.
I'd been driving for only an hour when the car broke down.

Richard: Oh no!

Mom: Anyway, it took me much longer than normal, so I'm just going into my room to have a lie down.

Richard: Don't go in there just yet mum. Let me tell you about...

Mom: Well, come and tell me in my room, so I can sit down.

Richard: That's what I wanted to tell you.

I've painted your room too, and it was quite difficult. So, you might not be too pleased.

It was supposed to be a surprise.
