

Subject - Verb Agreement

A sentence has subject + verb + details

My dog barks when he is angry.

↓ ↓ ↓
[subject] [verb] details

A singular subject takes a singular verb.

To make a verb singular

S for singular - add s or es to the verb

Singular noun singular verb

singular verb	plural verb
do es	do
go es	go
give s	give take s	take
open s	open
close s	close
stand s	stand sit s	sit
laugh s	laugh
cry ies	cry
bake s	bake
teach es	teach try ies	try

Put the verbs in the correct column.

is	was	are	has	am	have	are	does	go
----	-----	-----	-----	----	------	-----	------	----

singular
plural

Choose the correct option for each sentence.

1. My dog _____ to chase cats.
2. The tree _____ full of flowers.
3. A cow _____ in the middle of the road.
4. That pen _____ not write well.
5. His car _____ a sun roof.

True or False?

1. Rakesh do not like mangoes. ☐
2. Tara loves to sing and dance. ☐
3. The moon looks so beautiful. ☐
4. Radha want to go to Goa. ☐
5. I am feeling sleepy. ☐
6. We are not playing games today. ☐
7. They is laughing loudly. ☐

Make sentences with the following words.

1. chooses:

2. closes:

3. tries:

4. swims:

5. cycles:

