Arrange the following jumbled conversation into good order by giving a number for each dialogue part.

Accessing Online Resources

	CSR : Hello, University Library. This is Michael. How can I help you today?
	Caller : Hi Michael, I need help accessing some online journals for my thesis. How do I access them from off-campus?
	CSR : To access online journals from off-campus, you'll need to log in through our library's website using your university credentials. Look for the 'Off-Campus Access' link on the homepage.
	Caller : Thanks, Michael. That's very helpful.
	CSR : You're welcome! Is there anything else to be clarified?
	Caller : You've done wonderful.
	CSR : If you have any other questions, feel free to reach out. Have a great day! Caller : You too. Goodbye!
	Caller : Once I'm logged in, how do I find the journals?
	CSR : You can search for journals using our online catalog or directly through our database subscriptions. We have a list of databases under the 'Electronic Resources' section on our website.
	Caller : What if I have trouble accessing a specific journal?
	CSR : If you encounter any issues, you can contact our IT support team at itsupport@university.edu or call our helpdesk. They can assist you with technical problems.
