

to: have (never) been to +place, return to, listen to, go to (direction)

like: something like

as: the same as

on: on business, on LinkedIn, on social media in: in a rush, fall in love with for: pay for

of: take care of, a lot of about: don't care about at: at one's expense, at+holiday (without 'day'), laugh at

No preposition: follow smb, influence sb, go home, _this week, _last month, _next year, visit sb/sth etc.

Add - or a preposition

1. After finishing my project, I need to return my regular schedule.
2. My family always spends time together Christmas every year.
3. I love to listenmusic while studying for my exams.
4. You can find many professionals LinkedIn who want to connect.
5. I have a lot things to dothis week before the deadline.

6. She doesn't carewhat others think of her choices in life.

7. He travels frequently business to meet clients in different cities.

8. They planned the trip without asking me, and it wasmy expense.

9. I would like to try something sushi when we go out to eat.

10. My parents paid.....my college tuition, so I am very grateful.

11. The nurse took care the patients very well during her shift.

12. I have never been a concert that was as exciting as this one.

13. When I told a joke, my friends laughed it and enjoyed it.

14. Her opinion will influenceme when I make my final decision.

15. I am a rush because I have to catch my train soon.

16. We wentthe beach..... last month and had a fantastic time there.

17. Ever since I heard him speak, I followed..... him social media.

18. Their opinions are the same mine, so I feel understood.

19. After a long day, he goes..... home to relax and unwind.

20. I visited..... this citylast summer and fell in love with its culture.