

Identify whether sentences correctly use narrative tenses and make necessary corrections.

1. When the police had arrived at the bank, the robbers left.
correct/Incorrect
2. She was reading a book when the lights went out.
correct/Incorrect
3. By the time we arrived, the movie was starting.
correct/Incorrect
4. While I was cooking, he was setting the table.
correct/Incorrect
5. They left after the meeting had ended.
correct/Incorrect
6. They had finished dinner when the guests arrived.
correct/Incorrect
7. I was watching TV after I had completed my homework.
correct/Incorrect
8. She had been cooking dinner when her friend arrived.
correct/Incorrect
9. By the time I woke up, my brother had already left for school.
correct/Incorrect
10. While they were hiking, they had seen a bear.
correct/Incorrect