

SCIENCE: JUNIOR 5

Write true or false. Correct false sentences.

- a. Carnivores only eat plants.
- b. An identification key helps us divide animals into different groups.
- c. An animal that is herbivore eats plants.
- d. Animals that are omnivores eat only meat.

Complete the following sentences with the following words:

shelter - pollute - food - bad - salty - environment- affect - adapted - good - contaminated - water

- a. Human beings _____ the environment in _____ and _____ ways.
- b. Most of the water available in the Earth is _____.
- c. Villages, towns and cities _____ water.
- d. _____ water can harm or kill people and animals.
- e. Animals are _____ to help them live in their habitats.
- f. If an animal's _____ changes, it may change the way it behaves.

Animals need habitats where there's _____, _____ and _____.

Read and match

habitat	surroundings
environment	making the environment dirty
identification key	using something again
pollution	a way of sorting animals
recycling	where an animal lives