

A BREAKFAST I WON'T FORGET

For my birthday last month, my best friend invited me out for a very special breakfast – high above the city!

No, we weren't going in an aeroplane – we were going to have breakfast in a restaurant ¹which was hanging in the sky from a crane! Apparently, the idea ²_____ comes from Belgium. Now it has travelled to over 40 cities ³_____.

The food ⁴_____ was delicious, but the best thing was the amazing view ⁵_____. Of course, I was glad that there were seatbelts ⁶_____.

I'd highly recommend it to anyone ⁷_____.

It was certainly a birthday outing ⁸_____.
