I'm Nari. I'm Korean, but English is an important language for me. I want to be a translator and I'm in England for six months at a language school. It's fantastic! I'm in a lovely town by the sea and I have a room with a very nice family. They speak English to me all the time. It's hard but very good for me. When I have breakfast, we speak English. When I watch TV, we speak English. I think I speak English in my dreams!

Every day I go to a language school and study English with students from different countries. We never speak our own language – only English. We have five lessons every day, from 9.30 to 4.30. We study difficult things like grammar but the teachers are cool and sometimes we sing English songs and play games in class. There's a lot of talking too. It isn't only books, books and books! But my dictionary is very useful! At the end of the course we get a certificate.

After lessons we often do sports or watch films at school, and at the weekends I sometimes go on trips to interesting places with other students. I love this school. I have friends here from all over the world and learn about their cultures too. My best friend here is from Spain. It's a great life!
