Mr Green: Hey, Tom. How's your first week at the new school?
Tom: Well, it's great. But I was a bit nervous at first.
Mr Green: Why were you nervous?
Tom: The teachers are all new to me, most of my classmates are new too.
Mr Green: Are they friendly to you?
Tom: Ah, yeah. They are all nice to me.
Mr Green: What subjects did you have today?
Tom: Well, we had maths, geography and computer studies, my favorite subject.
Mr Green: Oh, good. So everything is going well at school?
Tom: Right. I had a good first day. And ... Dad, can I join the judo club at school ? I like to do judo.
Mr Green: Yeah, OK, if you like. But don't forget to do your homework.
Tom: I won't. Thanks, Dad.

Question 2. Read the passage, then tick true (T) or false (F) for the following statements.

Dear Peter,

Thank you for your letter. It's very interesting to know about schools in the USA.

I think schools in Vietnam are a little different. Vietnamese students usually wear school uniform when they are at school. Classes start at 7.00 each morning and end at 11.15. Students have a 30-minute break after three periods. At break, many students play games. Some go to the canteen and buy something to eat or drink. Others talk together. Our school year lasts for nine months, from September to May. Then we have a three-month summer vacation.

Please write soon and tell me about your summer vacation.

Your friend,

Hoa
