★ ★ The First American Woman in Space ★ ★

Sally Ride was born on May 26, 1951, in Los Angeles, California. As a young girl, she wanted to be a tennis player, and she played tennis professionally as a teenager. She was a student at Stanford University and studied English and physics. She finished her third degree at Stanford in 1978 and decided she wanted to be an astronaut. That year, over 8,000 people wanted to enter the U.S. space program (NASA). Only 35 people got in. Six were women, and one was Sally Ride.

At NASA, Sally got a lot of training. In 1983, she took her first space flight and became the first American woman in space. Sally Ride left NASA in 1987. Today, she encourages other young women to study science and math.

1. _____ ? In Los Angeles, California.
