

D5 Water on the Earth

1. Water is essential. Choose the pictures where water is wasted.

2. Match.

| | |
|----------------|----------|
| • snow | • liquid |
| • water vapour | • solid |
| • a river | • gas |

3. Complete the sentences with the right word.

| | | | |
|-------|------------|---------|-----------|
| melts | evaporates | freezes | condenses |
|-------|------------|---------|-----------|

When...

- solid water changes to liquid water, it _____.
- liquid water changes to water vapour, it _____.
- water vapour changes to liquid water, it _____.
- liquid water changes to solid water, it _____.

3. Match these words with the sentences.

condensation

evaporation

melting

solidification

a. If we heat liquid water, it becomes water vapour: _____.

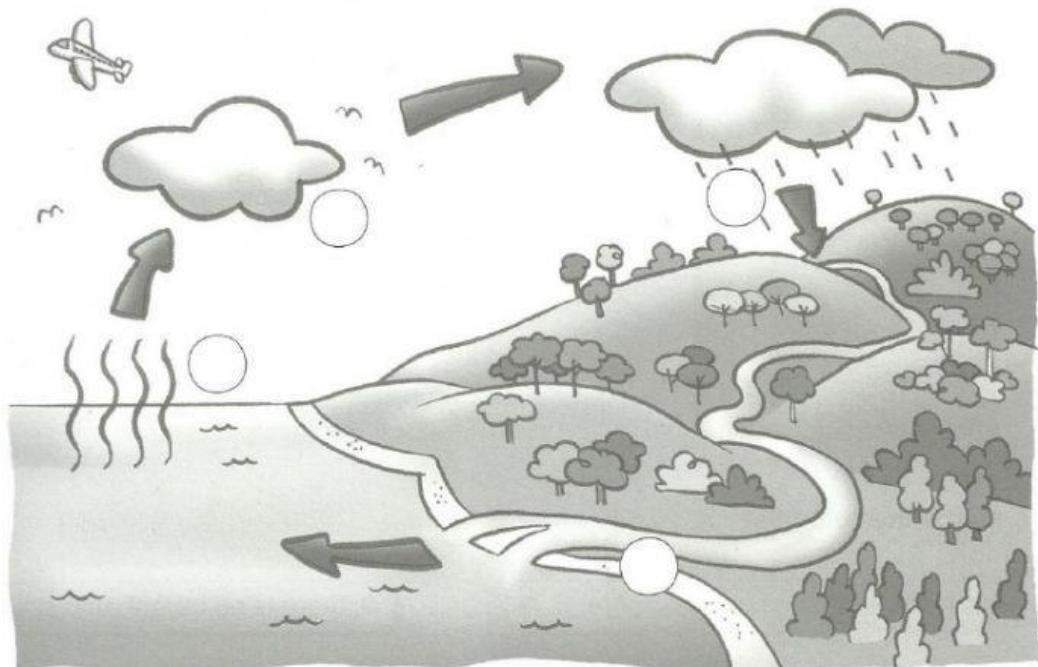

b. If we cool water vapour, it becomes liquid water: _____.

c. If we freeze liquid water, it becomes ice: _____.

d. If we heat ice, it becomes liquid water: _____.

4. Label the water cycle and answer the question.

1. Liquid water evaporates.
2. Clouds form.
3. Rain or snow falls from the clouds.
4. The water from the rain or snow can form rivers, become underground water or evaporate.

• Where can we find water in this illustration? _____