

Part 2

The Bolton physiotherapist <sup>1</sup>was / had been the first to notice that Muamba <sup>2</sup>fell down / had fallen down. He screamed, 'Get on the pitch, get on the pitch!' It <sup>3</sup>was / had been obvious that something serious <sup>4</sup>happened / had happened. But Muamba was lucky. Tottenham fan Dr Deaner, a consultant cardiologist, was one of the 35,000 spectators at the match that day. When he <sup>5</sup>saw / had seen that Muamba <sup>6</sup>dropped / had dropped to the ground, he turned to his brothers and said 'I should help'. He <sup>7</sup>ran / had run onto the pitch and told the ambulance to take Muamba to the London Chest Hospital. He <sup>8</sup>knew / had known that they had specialist equipment. This decision saved Muamba's life. When he finally <sup>9</sup>woke up / had woken up, he <sup>10</sup>was / had been 'dead' for 78 minutes.
