

4.1

MORE THAN JUST A JERSEY

1 VOCABULARY: Talking about advertising

A Complete the sentences with words in the box.

advertise	ad/advertisement	brands	commercials	fashion statement
logo	merchandise	merchandising	products	slogan
sponsor (n.)	sponsor (v.)	status symbols

- Al's Pizza pays to support our basketball team. They are our _____ sponsor _____. We have their _____ – "Best pizza in town!" – on our jerseys.
- Louisa wears bright colors to make a _____.
- Dave's business was not doing well, so he decided to _____ on TV. He also hired an artist to design a new _____ for his business.
- Have you seen the _____ for that new TV show? It looks really funny.
- _____ from famous _____, like Gucci and Prada, are often more expensive because they are _____.
- Disney makes a lot of its profits from _____. The company charges other companies to put its characters on their products.
- Many websites make money by hosting _____ for other companies and products.
- Many companies will _____ a local charity or a sports team because they know it is good for their reputation.
- The football stadium has a store inside that sells the team's _____.

2 GRAMMAR: Modals of speculation

A Circle the correct words.

- The fans are going to their seats. They can't / must have tickets.
- Val was in second place in the race last time. She might / must win this time.
- Andreas always wears a Santos jersey. He could / must like the team.
- There's a man talking to the players. He must / could be the coach. Or maybe he's the referee.
- Some fans are leaving the game early. They can't / might be bored.
- Nobody is wearing a jacket. It can't / could be cold.

B Complete the conversations. Use could, might, must, or can't and the verb in parentheses ().

1 A Does Victor know Eve?

B He must know (know) her. They're taking the same class.

2 A Are there tickets available for tomorrow's game?

B There are (be) tickets left. Let's look online and see.

3 A That's Marisol's brother.

B He is (be) Marisol's brother. Everyone in her family is tall, and he's very short.

4 A Does Natalia like soccer?

B She likes (like) it. She talks about it all the time.

5 A We have a meeting tomorrow, right?

B We are having (have) a meeting. Mark hasn't decided yet.

6 A Tom's at the door.

B Tom is (be) at the door. He's at work.

2 GRAMMAR: Subject and object relative clauses

A Write where, which, who, that, or – (if a relative pronoun is not necessary).

1 I like stores that OR which have a lot of different products.

2 I never go to restaurants where I have to wait.

3 My friends who live far away text me all the time.

4 I share all the photos that I take with friends and family.

5 I don't like problems which keep me awake at night.

6 I don't give money to people who I don't know.

7 I would like to be someone who other people admire.