

READ THE SITUATIONS AND THE PROMPTS AND WRITE SENTENCES. USE THE FUTURE GOING TO.

1. Penny's going to the park. (she / play / with / friends)

2. Tanya's going to bed. (she / not watch / film / on TV)

3. Oh, no! It's 8:30! (we / be / late)

4. The girls are better at volleyball than the boys. (boys / not win / game)

5. Be careful! (you / fall off / bridge)

6. It's Brian's birthday tomorrow. (he / have / party)

COMPLETE WITH THE FUTURE WILL OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS.

1. Tom is ill. I think he _____ (not come) to school tomorrow.
2. A: _____ (you / help) your mother clean the house?
B: Yes, Dad.
3. I like this T-shirt and I think I _____ (buy) it.
4. I _____ (write) the invitation for you. It isn't difficult.
5. I promise. I _____ (not borrow) your clothes again!
6. Start studying or you _____ (not go) out tonight.

- READ THE SITUATIONS AND THE PROMPTS AND WRITE SENTENCES. USE THE FUTURE GOING TO.

1. Penny's going to the park. (she / play / with / friends)

2. Tanya's going to bed. (she / not watch / film / on TV)

3. Oh, no! It's 8:30! (we / be / late)

4. The girls are better at volleyball than the boys. (boys / not win / game)

5. Be careful! (you / fall off / bridge)

6. It's Brian's birthday tomorrow. (he / have / party)

COMPLETE WITH THE FUTURE WILL OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS.

1. Tom is ill. I think he (not come) to school tomorrow.

2. A: (you / help) your mother clean the house?
B: Yes, Dad.

3. I like this T-shirt and I think I (buy) it.

4. I (write) the invitation for you. It isn't difficult.

5. I promise. I (not borrow) your clothes again!

6. Start studying or you (not go) out tonight.

READ THE SITUATIONS AND THE PROMPTS AND WRITE SENTENCES. USE THE FUTURE GOING TO.

1. Penny's going to the park. (she / play / with / friends)

2. Tanya's going to bed. (she / not watch / film / on TV)

3. Oh, no! It's 8:30! (we / be / late)

4. The girls are better at volleyball than the boys. (boys / not win / game)

5. Be careful! (you / fall off / bridge)

6. It's Brian's birthday tomorrow. (he / have / party)

COMPLETE WITH THE FUTURE WILL OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS.

1. Tom is ill. I think he _____ (not come) to school tomorrow.

2. A: _____ (you / help) your mother clean the house?
B: Yes, Dad.

3. I like this T-shirt and I think I _____ (buy) it.

4. I _____ (write) the invitation for you. It isn't difficult.

5. I promise. I _____ (not borrow) your clothes again!

6. Start studying or you _____ (not go) out tonight.

- READ THE SITUATIONS AND THE PROMPTS AND WRITE SENTENCES. USE THE FUTURE GOING TO.
1. Penny's going to the park. (she / play / with / friends)

 2. Tanya's going to bed. (she / not watch / film / on TV)

 3. Oh, no! It's 8:30! (we / be / late)

 4. The girls are better at volleyball than the boys. (boys / not win / game)

 5. Be careful! (you / fall off / bridge)

 6. It's Brian's birthday tomorrow. (he / have / party)

- COMPLETE WITH THE FUTURE WILL OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS.
1. Tom is ill. I think he _____ (not come) to school tomorrow.
 2. A: _____ (you / help) your mother clean the house?
B: Yes, Dad.
 3. I like this T-shirt and I think I _____ (buy) it.
 4. I _____ (write) the invitation for you. It isn't difficult.
 5. I promise. I _____ (not borrow) your clothes again!
 6. Start studying or you _____ (not go) out tonight.