Cumberland Pie

Fry 700 g of minced beef in a pan. When brown, remove the meat and put it onto a plate.

1 two cloves of garlic, one onion and two carrots. Chop them into small pieces and fry them for five minutes in oil until soft. Return the meat to the pan and add 130 ml of beef stock. Add salt and pepper and then 2 on a low heat for 30 minutes.

In the meantime, heat the oven to 200 °C and boil 70 g of potatoes. When cooked, 3 the water from the potatoes thoroughly and mash them with a fork until soft. 4 in some milk and butter.

Place the minced meat mixture into an ovenproof dish and then spread the mashed potatoes on top, 5 some cheddar cheese and 6 it on the potato. Cook in the oven for around 25 minutes. If the cheese on top is not yet brown and crisp, 7 it for a few minutes before serving.

8 some green beans so they are cooked but still nice and crisp. Serve with the Cumberland Pie when ready.

5 Complete the conversation using the prompts.

A: Did you enjoy your meal out last night?
B: Not really. It was ¹ (nowhere / good) when we went last year.
A: Oh no. What was wrong?
B: Well, the menu was ² (bit / varied) which was good, but the food was ³ (much / impressive). It was very bland and there was also a lot less of it. The service was ⁴ (hundred times / bad) too. The waiter showed little interest in us and clearly forgot about us a couple of times.
A: I hate bad service.
B: Me too. We didn't bother leaving a tip. The whole experience was ⁵ (nothing / enjoyable) before. I won't go again.
A: You should try the new restaurant on Mill Road. It's ⁶ (touch / pricey) than we're used to, but the food is amazing.
