

Practice Reading

Listen and sing along. Then read each sentence.

Yesterday, Billy bought cookies at the store.
He bought sixteen cookies,
but his sister ate four.
His mother ate three,
and his brother had eight.
How many cookies were left on Billy's plate?

Today, Billy didn't buy cookies at the store.
But his mother bought three,
and his sister bought four.
His brother bought sixteen,
but he only had eight.
How many cookies were left on Billy's plate?
