2 Complete the conversation with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses.

Julia Felipe and I have decided <sup>1</sup> _____ (move) back to Brazil.

Sophie Really? I thought you liked <sup>2</sup> _____ (live) in France.

Julia Yes, but we miss <sup>3</sup> _____ (see) our families and we'd like <sup>4</sup> _____ (have) our own house. We could never afford <sup>5</sup> _____ (buy) a place in Paris.

Sophie When are you planning <sup>6</sup> _____ (leave)?

Julia Well, we don't want <sup>7</sup> _____ (wait) too long, so we expect <sup>8</sup> _____ (go) some time in the next couple of months. I've already managed <sup>9</sup> _____ (find) a job, and Felipe is hoping <sup>10</sup> _____ (get) one soon.

Sophie It won't be the same here without you. Do you promise <sup>11</sup> _____ (stay) in touch?

Julia Yes, of course. And if you and Dan feel like <sup>12</sup> _____ (come) to Brazil on vacation, you'd be very welcome at our home in Rio.

Sophie That sounds great. Don't forget <sup>13</sup> _____ (give) me your e-mail address before you go.

Julia Don't worry, I won't. We're trying <sup>14</sup> _____ (plan) a party before we go so that we can say goodbye to everyone. Do you want <sup>15</sup> _____ (come)?

Sophie I hate <sup>16</sup> _____ (say) goodbye to people, but yes, I'd love to come!
