

Present perfect tense (3)

Leon: Have you ever been to Australia, Alice?

Alice: Yes, I have.

Leon: How many times have you been there?

Alice: I've been there twice. Have you ever been to the UK?

Leon: No, I haven't. / No, I've never been to the UK.

We can use the present perfect tense to talk about an experience up to the present moment.
We do not say exactly when it happened.

Practice

A Have you ever done these things? Complete the questions using 'ever'.
Then give short answers to the questions.

Yes, I have.

No, I haven't.

1 A: Have you _____ watched a ballet?

B: _____

2 A: Have you _____ ?

B: _____

3 A: _____ ?

B: _____

4 A: _____ ?

B: _____

5 A: _____

B: _____

6 A: _____

B: _____

Date: _____

B Complete the questions and the answers with 'How many times' and the words given.

visit a castle	take a ride in a hot-air balloon	visit a temple	watch a football match
✓	✓✓	✓✓✓✓✓✓✓...	✓✓✓✓

once twice four times many times

- A: _____ have you visited a castle?
B: I've visited a castle _____.
- A: _____ a ride in a hot-air balloon?
B: I _____ a ride in a hot-air balloon _____.
- A: _____ a temple?
B: _____
- A: _____
B: _____

Carol is talking with Ted about a theme park. Complete the conversation.

ride take be watch

Carol: ① _____ you _____ to Fun World, Ted? I've been there
② _____. ③ _____ there?

Ted : I've been there ④ _____.

Carol: I've ⑤ _____ on the cable car ⑥ _____
⑦ _____

you _____ on the cable car?

Ted : I ⑧ _____ on the cable car ⑨ _____.

I ⑩ _____ the dolphin show ⑪ _____ too.

I ⑫ _____ photos with the cartoon characters

⑬ _____. It was fun.

