The Adventures of Tom Sawyer

One hot summer day Tom and Joe Harper were down by the Mississippi River. They fished and talked.

“OK”, said Joe. “But what? And where?” [...]

That night three boys in a small boat went down to Jackson’s Island. They had some bread and some meat, and Huck had his pipe, too. They cooked the meat over the fire and had the best dinner in the world. Soon they stopped talking, their eyes closed and they slept.
