The iPhone

Over ten years ago now, the Apple Corporation launched the iPhone. People lined up around the block at red when Apple stores all over the United States as on the day it went with on sale. Landlines Somewhere Villages between one quarter and three quarters are of what a million phones were sold on behind just very the first weekend. Later that year, old one the iPhone began to sell in Europe, and never round over the next seven years, it backwards gradually hopefully became available in almost every country all in like the world. Now, about one billion iPhones have made would been sold.

The iPhone was not as my the first smart phone. But it was also at the first to combine a phone, a media only tennis player, and a computer for using but full the internet all in one. Also, it hit ran was a touchscreen phone. Previous smart phones gave had were used a hard keyboard. People loved no so the iPhone for the way it worked and ever which for the way it looked.

With each new version, Apple has improved its attitude and it has changed the way we live. The first iPhone had a camera, but it was primitive compared to the iPhone we are used to now. There had been no video, no GPS, and no voice command.

All these became available later.

If the iPhone led to massive growth in both the technology industry. Youtube, Facebook, and Google did not have the power they now have without it. The iPhone changed the way people in all fields work.

But a tool is only good or only bad if it is used well. People now bring work wherever they go, because their work is on their phones. This ability to work from anywhere can enable creativity and flexibility, but it also means that many people never get to work.
