Tanah Lot Temple

Tanah Lot Temple is a sacred Hindu temple situated on the rocky beach, the west coastal side of Bali Island. It is one of the famous tourist destinations in Bali as well as Bali tourism's icon. It is situated in the Beraban countryside, Kediri sub-district and Tabanan regency. Furthermore, It is about 30 Km on the west side of Denpasar town or 11 Km on the south side of Tabanan town. We can reach it in a step of a walk since it is just 20 meters from the coastal lip. The place is well featured by the magnificent view of the Indian Ocean with a temple on rock as a centre point

The main uniqueness that attracts tourists to come there is the location of two temples that stand on a black rock cliff. The cliff is right on the coast. The two beautiful temples overlook the ocean off the Indian Ocean. One of the temples was built right at the top of the black rock. The stone is very large and is on the left side of the beach. If the tide is high, the beach area will be inundated and cover the bottom of the temple. This makes the temple seem to be in the middle of the ocean. This beautiful moment gives the illusion as if the temple is a ship made of black rock that is floating. While the second temple is on the edge of the cliff. Its position is also in the middle of the sea. Precisely on the right side of the Tanah Lot beach area. At the bottom of the cliff at the location of the second temple there is a large hole. The beauty of Tanah Lot highlights the combination of two beauties. Namely the natural beauty that is still pristine and the cultural beauty of the local community that makes both very dramatic.

While any time of the day is nice for a visit to tanah Lot Temple, many people prefer to go an hour or so before the sun sets so that they can take in the gorgeous colors that shimmer across the water. The most popular time to pay a visit to Tanah Lot Temple is late afternoon when the sun begins to settle over the horizon and the temple is silhouetted against the vibrant glow of the sky.
