Billionaire rips a hole in his Picasso worth $139 million

Steve Wynn, the billionaire art collector, felt extremely embarrassed after he had damaged one of his own paintings by putting a hole in the canvas.

Wynn, the 107th-richest man in America, runs hotels and casinos in Las Vegas. He owns a Matisse, a Renoir, a Van Gogh, a Gauguin, and several Warhols.

He bought a Picasso, Le Rêve (The Dream) in 1997. It was painted in 1932, and it depicts Picasso's mistress as she is sitting daydreaming. Wynn paid $48m for it.

Despite being one of his favourite pictures, Wynn had decided to sell it. He had been negotiating with an investor, Steven Cohen, and they had agreed a price of $139m.

The weekend before the sale, some friends of his were visiting from New York, staying in one of his hotels. They wanted to see the picture, which was hanging in his office, before it was sold. Wynn was standing in front of the picture and explaining its history when he accidentally put his elbow through the canvas.

The picture was repaired by an art restorer in New York. It is now impossible to see where it was damaged. Not surprisingly, Cohen no longer wanted to buy it, so Wynn put it in a vault for safe keeping.
