

The Secondary Education Service Area Office Phitsanulok Uttaradit

Name: _____

Score: _____

English in Everyday Life– Mathayom 6

September 25, 2024

Final Examination

Term 1

I. Directions: For each example below, write whether it is an example of Fiction or Non-Fiction. 15 pts.

1. _____ A biography about Albert Einstein's life and scientific achievements.
2. _____ A novel about a young wizard attending a magical school.
3. _____ A science book explaining the solar system and planets.
4. _____ A short story about a boy who finds a secret treasure map.
5. _____ An autobiography where a famous athlete describes their career and challenges.
6. _____ A mystery novel where a detective solves a crime in a small town.
7. _____ A horror story about a haunted house where strange things happen at night.
8. _____ An encyclopedia entry about the history of ancient Egypt.
9. _____ A fantasy novel set in a world with dragons, magic, and legendary heroes.
10. _____ A travel guide that describes the best tourist spots in Paris.
11. _____ A science fiction novel about a future where humans live on Mars.
12. _____ A cookbook with recipes from around the world.
13. _____ A historical fiction novel set during the Civil War, focusing on a fictional family.
14. _____ A newspaper article about the latest advancements in renewable energy.
15. _____ An encyclopedia entry about the history of ancient Egypt.

II. Multiple choice: Select the correct meaning of each proverb or idiom. 10 pts.

1. Actions speak louder than words.

- a. Words are more important than actions.
- b. Actions are more important than words.
- c. Actions and words are equally important.

2. Better late than never.

- a. It's better to arrive late than not at all.
- b. It's always better to be on time.
- c. It's better never to show up.
- d. None of the above.

3. Break the ice.

- a. To break something physically.
- b. To initiate conversation in a social setting.
- c. To end a conversation abruptly.
- d. To be very cold.

4. Hit the nail on the head.

- a. To miss the target.
- b. To describe exactly what is causing a situation.
- c. To hammer a nail into a wall.
- d. To hit someone accidentally.

5. A piece of cake.

- a. To eat dessert.
- b. Something very difficult to do.
- c. A simple and easy task.
- d. To celebrate a birthday.

6. I will do my homework, ____ I will watch TV.

- a. than
- b. to
- c. their
- d. then

7. Is this ____ book on the table?

- a. Your
- b. you're
- c. too
- d. two

8. Everyone is invited ____ Jane to the party.

- a. accept
- b. except
- c. loose
- d. lose

9. The boy couldn't find his keys because he would often ____ them.

- a. Loose
- b. Lose
- c. Accept
- d. Except

10. You should ____ her invitation to the concert.

- a. accept
- b. except
- c. Loose
- d. Lose

III. True or False: Read each statement carefully and write "True" if the statement is correct or "False" if the statement is incorrect. 15 pts.

1. _____ Phones help people stay connected with friends and family from anywhere.
2. _____ Using phones for long periods can improve posture and eye health.
3. _____ Smartphones provide easy access to educational resources and information.
4. _____ Phones can cause distractions and reduce productivity, especially while working or studying.
5. _____ Excessive use of phones can lead to social isolation and less face-to-face interaction.
6. _____ Phones always enhance communication and never cause misunderstandings.
7. _____ Smartphones offer convenience for online shopping and banking.
8. _____ Spending too much time on the phone can affect sleep quality, especially before bed.
9. _____ Phones help people navigate easily with GPS and mapping apps.
10. _____ Using phones for entertainment, such as games or social media, can sometimes lead to addiction.
11. _____ Phones are completely safe and do not pose any privacy or security risks.
12. _____ Phones can be helpful tools in emergencies by providing quick access to help.
13. _____ Mobile phones increase face-to-face communication and reduce the need for texting or messaging.
14. _____ Excessive phone use can contribute to anxiety and stress.
15. _____ Phones never cause any negative effects on personal relationships.

IV. Matching-Type Test: Common Health Issues

Match the symptoms (Column A) with the correct health issue (Column B).

Column A (Symptoms)	Column B (Health Issue)
_____ ☒ Runny nose, cough, sore throat	a) Sore throat
_____ ☒ Pain in the head, sensitivity to light	b) Cold
_____ ☒ Fever, body aches, tiredness	c) Back pain
_____ ☒ Thirst, frequent urination, blurred vision	d) Stress
_____ ☒ Pain in the lower or upper back	e) Diabetes
_____ ☒ Trouble falling asleep, feeling tired during the day.	f) Headache
_____ ☒ Pain or discomfort in the stomach, nausea	g) Sleep problem
_____ ☒ Worry, difficulty concentrating, irritability	h) Flu
_____ ☒ Thirst, dark urine, feeling weak	i) Dehydration
_____ ☒ Pain or scratchiness in the throat	j) Stomachache