The New School Year and Our Crazy Mornings!

Read the text below, choose the correct answer (A, B, C, D)

Hi Sis,

I hope you're doing well! I just wanted to catch you up on how hectic things are here with the new school year starting. Honestly, slipping (1) _____ the family's morning routine is such a challenge!

Every morning, we wake up around 6:30, but somehow, the kids are still always running late! I am trying to divide the tasks between me and Mike, but it's not easy. I get the kids dressed and Mike (2) _____ breakfast. However, packing lunches (3) _____ my job, and it takes forever because they can't decide what they want. You know how picky they are!

Getting the kids to school on time feels like a race every day. I am constantly reminding them to brush their teeth and put on their shoes, but they always manage to forget something! (4) _____ you have any tips on how to get them moving faster in the mornings?

Let's (5) _____ things will calm down soon. I just need to figure out how to make this routine smoother without losing my mind!

Take care and let me know how things are on your end.

Love,

Sarah
