My Mother

The person I like very much is my mother. She is always kind and caring. My mother helps me with everything, and she is always there when I need her. I like her because she listens to me and gives me good advice. She works hard every day, but she always makes time for our family. My mother is also very strong. Even when things are hard, she stays positive and never gives up. I admire her because she is patient and loves everyone around her. She also makes the best food, and I enjoy spending time with her in the kitchen. My mother teaches me many things, like how to be kind and work hard. I feel happy and safe when I am with her. That is why I like my mother very much.
