PERSONALITY QUIZ

Take the personality quiz and write down your answers. Go to the next slide to see the scoring and your results.

1.What motivates you the most?
a) Money and success
b) Helping others
c) New experiences
d) Relaxation and comfort

2.How do you handle stress?
a) Stay calm and focused
b) Talk to friends or family
c) Take a break or do something fun
d) Avoid stressful situations

3.What's your favorite way to spend your free time?
a) Working on a project or task
b) Socializing with friends or family
c) Trying something new or adventurous
d) Relaxing at home with a book or movie

4.How do you usually react to unexpected changes?
a) Adapt quickly and find a solution
b) Get upset or frustrated
c) Embrace the change and see it as an opportunity
d) Ignore it and hope it goes away

5.Which phrase describes you the best?
a) "Where there's a will, there's a way."
b) "The more, the merrier."
c) "Life is an adventure."
d) "Better safe than sorry."

LIVEWORKSHEETS

PERSONALITY AND CHARACTER IDIOMS

1. John is a real go-getter. He's always looking for new opportunities and pushing himself to succeed.
2. Sally is such a people person . She constantly makes friends wherever she goes.
3. Don't be such a wimp! Sometimes you have to take risks and try new things.
4. I tried to strike up a conversation with him, but he was a real cold fish and didn't seem interested.
5. Sarah's a real wet blanket. She sucked all the fun out of the party.
6. I think that guy might have a screw loose - he keeps talking to himself and seems really paranoid.
7. Karen is a real mover and shaker in the business world. She's always coming up with new ideas and making big deals.
8. My grandfather is very set in his ways. He likes to stick to his routines and doesn't like change.
9. Jack is such a cheapskate. He never wants to spend any money, even when we're out with friends.
10. Stop being such a moaning Minnie and try to find something positive about the situation!
11. The kids were full of beans after playing outside all afternoon. They had so much energy! How is it possible?
12. After I finished all my work on Friday, I was a happy camper because I could finally relax and enjoy the weekend.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Match the idioms with their meanings.

1)a go-getter	a)someone who is energetic, enthusiastic, and lively
2)a people person	b)someone who is weak and lacks courage
3)a wimp	c)someone who is stingy or unwilling to spend money
4)a cold fish	d)someone who is unemotional and distant
5)a wet blanket	e)someone who is ambitious, determined, and proactive
6)to have a screw loose	f)someone who is influential, powerful, and actively involved in bringing about change
7)a mover and shaker	g)someone who is always complaining or whining about something.
8)be set in somebody's ways	h)someone who enjoys being around and interacting with others
9)a cheapskate	i)someone who is content, satisfied, and happy with their current situation
10)a Moaning Minnie	j)someone who is a little crazy or mentally unstable
11)full of beans	k)someone who is resistant to change
12)a happy camper	l)someone who spoils the fun for others with their negative attitude or lack of excitement

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Underline the correct idiom that best matches the meaning of the sentence.

1. Even though the weather was terrible, John was still willing to go for walk. He's a real mover and shaker/happy camper.
2. Every time we suggest trying a new dish, Sarah always turns her nose up and says it looks disgusting. She's definitely full of beans/a Moaning Minnie.
3. Despite being a successful businessman, Tom is always willing to lend a hand to anyone who needs it. He's definitely a people person/full of beans.
4. Whenever there's an opportunity to save money, Moses always takes it, even if it means sacrificing quality. He's such a cheapskate/a mover and shaker.
5. Even though he's always smiling and being friendly to everyone, it's clear that Jack doesn't actually care about anyone. He's a cold fish/a happy camper.
6. Alex never wants to take any risks and always plays it safe. He's definitely a wimp/a cold fish.
7. Whenever there's a project to be done, Susan always takes the lead and ensures that everything is completed on time. She's full of beans/a real mover and shaker.
8. When you talk to him, it's clear that he's not quite right in the head. He must be a happy camper/have a screw loose
9. Every time we suggest trying something new, Ryan always jumps in with enthusiasm and gets everyone excited. He's definitely full of beans/a moaning Minnie.
10. Despite being retired, my grandfather still wakes up at 5 am every day and sticks to the same routine. He's really a people person/set in his ways.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS