Hi Eloise,

I'm happy you can stay in our house! There [26. (A) is, (B) are, (C) were] a lot of food in the fridge. We [27. (A) have, (B) has, (C) haven't] got any cheese but there are plenty of other things. Please take what you want! There are [28. (A) any, (B) some, (C) these] bananas and oranges in a bowl on the table. [29. (A) The, (B) An, (C) -] oranges are a bit old but they're OK.

There are lots of films and CDs in [30. (A) the, (B) an, (C) a] box in the living room. If you use the TV, [(A) don't, (B) can't, (C) isn't] forget to turn it off after. See you at about ten o'clock.

Have fun!

Claire

6. You have an English penfriend who you write to regularly to practice your English. Write an email to your penfriend about places you travel to and the transport you use. Your email should be between 80-130 words.

In your email:

- Explain where you travel to in a typical week.
 - Write about what you do there.
 - Say how you get to these places and how long it takes.
 - Write about what you like and don't like about the different types of travel.
- Write as much as you can about each of the things.

You can use this space for notes.
