Tracey and her sister had always wanted their own horse. And although neither of them had much spare money, they were about to A22 their dream. The tricky part was not getting a horse but actually finding somewhere to keep one. But eventually Mrs Richards agreed to let the girls A23 a small field at the far end of the farm. This was going to A24 them £500 a year but it would work out at just over £20 per month each which was OK. The horse himself was coming from the Horse Rescue Charity. They would need to make a small donation every year to cover the cost of an animal welfare inspector who would visit twice a year. The A25 expenses after this would be for food and vet bills. But the two girls were A26 that they could manage and were committed to going ahead. And it was a big commitment. They were getting an eighteen month old skewbald colt named Domino. Horses often live over twenty years and the sisters were taking him on A27 life. Actually they had plans to get another horse as a friend for Domino. But first of all Domino would need to settle down. He had been badly treated by his previous owners and was still a bit nervous and difficult to A28.
