

At the airport terminal

-READ THE FOLLOWING TEXT:

When you arrive at the airport, the first place where you go is the entrance. This is the big door that leads you inside the building. Once you are inside, you look for the check-in desk, which is the place where you give your luggage and get your boarding pass.

After checking in, you go to the security check, where you must show your ID and boarding pass. This is the part of the airport that takes few minutes. Everyone who is traveling must go through security.

Next, you find the gate, which is the place where you wait for your flight. The gate number tells you when your plane will be ready for boarding. Finally, you wait until the announcement tells you when it's time to board the plane!
