Use the word given in capitals to form a word that fits the gap.

HOW TRAVEL INSPIRED MY LIFE

Today, I travel all around the world as a jewellery (1) _____ [DESIGN], but travel was also central to my (2) _____ [CHILD]. My parents encouraged my sister and me to keep records of our (3) _____ [REFLECT] in journals to put together scrapbooks with souvenirs of our adventures. Before (4) _____ [DEPART], a private tutor was hired to equip us with the (5) _____ [BASE] of our destination's native tongue. My poor sister was not a (6) _____ [PARTICULAR] brilliant linguist and found the whole process a (7) _____ [CONSIDER] strain. My experience was very (8) _____ [DIFFER]. My wanderlust was (9) _____ [FORCE] when, straight out of school, I had the opportunity to spend periods in India, Eastern Europe, Africa and Asia. I travel like a (10) _____ [REST] explorer, absorbing the details of art and architecture, going into the local history and traditions in (11) _____ [DEEP]. I bring this approach to my work today. I am constantly reading, researching and (12) _____ [BROAD] my knowledge. Not (13) _____[SURPRISE], every jewellery collection I work on is an utterly unique (14) _____ [REPRESENT] of a part of my life's voyage.

Source: Exam Booster for Advanced

LIVEWORKSHEETS