1. Which negative prefix goes with these words to form antonyms?
    a. _____ reliable
    b. _____ credible
    c. _____ probable
    d. _____ honest
    e. _____ legal
    f. _____ responsible

2. Complete the conversations with the correct form of words from ex 1, 2 and 3 (page 47)
    - A. Barry's a very _____ businessman, isn't he?
    - B. Yeah, but he's a complete _____ as a father. He never sees his kids.

    - A. My grandad's so _____ . He gives me a £20 note every time I see him.
    - B. Lucky you! My grandad's famous for his _____. A fiver every birthday, if he remembers.

    - A. Well, Henry, I'm pleased there's been some _____in your behaviour this term, but unfortunately your work has _____.
    - B. It's not fair, sir. You never say anything _____ about my work.

    - A. The word "literally" is so _____these days!
      People drop it into every sentence!
    - B. Yeah, and they don't just use it too much - they _____ it, with a totally wrong meaning!

    - A. Don't worry, i'm confident the jury will find you not _____.
      B. They'd better! I'm completely _____ !

3. Rewrite each sentence by replacing the indicated words with their antonyms. Use at least two antonyms per sentence.

1. The huge crowd was filled with happy faces, and the atmosphere was very exciting.
2. His failure in the competition made him feel guilty and immature.
3. They decided to allow childish behavior at the party, thinking it would be fun.
4. Her sincere apology was met with mean remarks and disapproval.
5. The mature decision to invest in the project was based on risky assumptions about the market.
6. The magician made the tiny rabbit appear and then disappear with a flourish.
7. Parents should encourage their children to be innocent and open-minded about the world.
8. The bright colors of the painting made everyone feel excited and happy.
9. She felt confident during the important presentation, and her words were encouraging.
10. The complex problem turned out to be a simple solution, making everyone feel relieved and satisfied.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. CROSSWORD:

What´s the opposite of...?

Complete the crossword by adding the opposite words to the words in uppercase.

Across

4. A FAIR decision
6. Some TOUGH meat
7. A CLEAR sky
8. A HARD exam
10. A LIVE animal

Down

1. A LIGHT sleeper
2. A LIGHT colour
3. A CLEAR conscience
5. A LIVE concert
9. A HARD mattress

LIVEWORKSHEETS