

Chapter 50

Reptiles and Amphibians

A reptile is a vertebrate animal. Its body is covered with tough scales. Most reptiles live on land, but some of them like turtles and some kinds of snakes live in water as well.

A. Name the following reptiles using the help box :

1 ____ 2 ____ 3 ____ 4 ____

An amphibian is a vertebrate animal that starts its life underwater, and moves on to land in its adulthood.

B. Name the following amphibians, using the help box :

1 ____ 2 ____ 3 ____ 4 ____

BOOST UP

- The world's largest frog is the Goliath frog.
- There are more than 6,000 existing species of amphibians.

Help Card

Lizard, Frog, Chameleon, Blindworm, Snake, Crocodile, Tortoise, Salamander

LIVEWORKSHEETS