Question 19-21: Read the text and choose the correct answers

Social media has both positive and negative effects on teenagers. On the positive side, it allows them to stay connected with friends, share experiences, and learn new things. However, excessive use of social media can lead to problems. Teenagers may feel pressure to compare themselves to others, which can lower their self-esteem. Cyberbullying is another issue, as negative comments can harm their mental health. Spending too much time online also affects their sleep and concentration in school. To maintain a healthy balance, it's important for teenagers to limit their social media use and focus on real-life interactions.

19. What is the main idea of the paragraph?

- A. How social media can harm friendships
- B. The ways social media affects teenagers
- C. The benefits of social media for adults
- D. How teenagers should improve their grades

20. According to the paragraph, what can lower teenagers' self-esteem?

- A. Sharing experiences online
- B. Comparing themselves to others
