

3. Complete the gaps in the questions below with the idioms from ex. 2.

- a) How often does your manager tell you to? Do you suppose that it encourages you or is it a meaningless phrase?
- b) Why does a manager sometimes their employees when they present team ideas to superiors? Has it ever happened to you? What can be done to prevent this behaviour?
- c) What kind of person can be a in a modern tech company? What character traits are needed to be such a person? Do you know anybody like that?
- d) What kind of approaches does your company use to motivate staff? Do you think they are useful? Which ones might be more effective?
- e) What happens to a company when it and does not innovate anymore?
- f) How do you make people their work or an idea?
- g) What was the one experience that really? How did you overcome it?
- h) Would you to help your teammates? For example, would you do overtime to help them finish their work or cover for them on your free day?