

LKPD 1

1. What is the title for the video

2. Read the text and find generic structure!

MALIOBORO

Malioboro is the most famous street in Yogyakarta. This is the city's main street. Located in the heart of Yogyakarta, Malioboro is the biggest shopping centre in Yogyakarta. Malioboro is also for shopping beside for a recreation place. There are many interesting place in Malioboro, like distro, hotel, mall, restaurant and many more. There are many facilities there like mosque, toilet and etc. It free to use.

In Malioboro the tourist can choose what they want because there so many variety store. If you want to buy clothes you can to distro or mall, or if you want to buy some special snack from Yogyakarta you can buy it in special snack store that can be found along in Malioboro Street like "Bakpia Patok". If you are after some batik to take home as a souvenir, then Malioboro is the right place for you. From house dresses to formal batik wear, this street has them all. Batik can also be made into bags, table cloths, bed sheets, hats and a whole lot more.

The best way to take in the sights of Malioboro is on foot. Stalls and stores line up the streets. There are so many wares to choose from here, that you just might need to return to next day to finish all your shopping. If you plan to spend a night in Malioboro, there are hotels to suit all budgets here. In the evening several open-air street side restaurants, called "lesehan" and "angkringan", operate along the street. Local food is sold on the side of the road and includes gudeg, steak, tea, coffee and juice.

This is the street of the artists. Street musicians, painters, and other artists exhibit their creations on this road. At night, the street comes alive. Enjoy your meal while taking in malioboro's vibrant night life. It's an experience you shall not forget.

3. Write description and identification from the text above

identification	description

4. Write language feature from the text above

Language feature

