

A. Match the masculine noun with the feminine noun.

- |           |            |
|-----------|------------|
| 1. Son    | - princess |
| 2. Tiger  | - heroine  |
| 3. King   | - daughter |
| 4. Prince | - queen    |
| 5. Hero   | - tigress  |

B. Change the masculine noun to feminine noun in the given sentences.

- |                                               |       |
|-----------------------------------------------|-------|
| 1. My uncle presented me a watch.             | _____ |
| 2. A young man was driving the car.           | _____ |
| 3. May I come in sir?                         | _____ |
| 4. The waiter took the order.                 | _____ |
| 5. The rooster scratched the earth for worms. | _____ |

C. Complete each sentence by using the following words.

uncle   bride   bull   niece   king

- |                                                   |                                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Farmer John has four cows and two _____.       |                                                                                                             |
| 2. The bridegroom and the _____ entered the hall. |                                                                                                             |
| 3. The _____ and queen attended the court.        |                                                                                                             |
| 4. Charles greeted his _____ and aunt.            |                                                                                                             |
| 5. I played with my nephew and _____              |  LIVEWORKSHEETS |