Fill in the gaps with stipend, grant, allowance or scholarship.

1. Students who demonstrate academic excellence may qualify for a _____ to help cover their tuition fees.

2. After applying for several funding options, she was thrilled to receive a _____ that will support her research project.

3. The organization awarded a generous _____ to fund innovative community projects in the area.

4. In addition to his monthly _____, he took up part-time work to save for his study abroad program.

5. The government recently increased the _____ for teachers working in underprivileged areas to attract more professionals to those schools.

6. The _____ she received made it possible for her to focus entirely on her studies without the need for a part-time job.

7. He applied for a research _____ to fund his project on renewable energy solutions.

8. His parents give him a small _____ each week to help him with his personal expenses.

9. The nonprofit organization provided a _____ to help fund community development projects in the area.

10. The student exceeded expectations and earned a substantial _____ for her exemplary performance in the sciences.

11. She budgeted her monthly _____ carefully so that she could afford dancing classes for her little daughter.

12. As part of his agreement with the university, he received a _____ of €5000.

LIVEWORKSHEETS