Egg-citing dishes!

People around the world love eggs. Many people enjoy them for breakfast, but eggs are delicious any time of the day.

Egg drop soup is from China, but it's popular in the U.S., the U.K., and many other countries. The dish has eggs, chicken, onions, salt, and pepper. People usually eat it for lunch or dinner. It's cheap and it's easy to make.

Loco moco is a very popular dish in the U.S. state of Hawaii. It has white rice, meat, onions, salt, and pepper. There's always an egg on top. People usually have it for breakfast, but it's also a popular dish for lunch.

Shakshuka is from North Africa, but it's popular in the Middle East, too. It has tomatoes, peppers, onions, garlic, and lots of eggs. People usually eat it with bread, for breakfast, lunch, or dinner.

OUTDOOR SNACKS

Do you like hiking and camping? These three snacks are great for the outdoors.

Trail mix

Hikers love trail mix. It usually has nuts, fruit, and chocolate in it. It's great for hiking because it gives you lots of energy. People often buy their trail mix from supermarkets, but supermarket trail mix is expensive. Make your own at home. It's easy, and it's cheap, too.

S'mores

The word s'more comes from "some more" in "Do you want some more?" And who doesn't want more of this delicious camping favorite? It has only three ingredients: cookies, marshmallows, and chocolate. Cook your s'mores over a fire and eat them warm!

Granola bars

Granola bars are great for hiking. They're a type of cake and they're easy to make. The most important ingredients are oats, butter, and sugar. Many people also put fruit in their granola bars. They're delicious and they're easy to carry around.
