QUIZIZZ Worksheets

Empowering Andaliman Village

Total questions: 15

Worksheet time: 8mins

Instructor name: Hida Febrina

Name

Class

Date

1. Who is the main character in the story?

a) The author of the story

b) The narrator's friend

c) The main character is usually referred to as the protagonist.

d) The antagonist of the story

2. What is Jessie's vision for her village?

a) A village focused on tourism and luxury.

b) A village with no community involvement.

c) A technologically advanced village.

d) A sustainable and community-focused village.

3. What type of power plant does Jessie want to build?

a) hydroelectric

b) nuclear

c) solar

d) unspecified

4. How has the electricity supply been for the village?

a) The electricity supply is always stable and reliable.

b) The village has no electricity supply issues.

c) The electricity supply has been inconsistent and unreliable.

d) The electricity supply is abundant and consistent.

5. What challenges does the village face regarding electricity?

a) Consistent power supply throughout the year.

b) High electricity costs but no outages.

c) Abundant renewable energy sources available.

d) Unreliable power supply and frequent outages.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. How did the villagers initially react to Jessie's idea?

a) The villagers were enthusiastic and supportive.

b) The villagers ignored Jessie's idea completely.

c) The villagers were skeptical and resistant.

d) The villagers were confused but curious.

7. What reasons did the villagers have for opposing the hydro power plant?

a) The villagers opposed the hydro power plant due to environmental concerns, displacement, loss of land, and disruption of their lifestyle.

b) The villagers believed the hydro power plant would improve their water supply.

c) The villagers supported the hydro power plant for economic growth.

d) The villagers were indifferent to the hydro power plant's impact.

8. What does Jessie believe about the investment in the hydro power plant?

a) Jessie believes the investment will lead to environmental damage.

b) Jessie thinks the investment is risky and unprofitable.

c) Jessie believes the investment is sustainable and profitable.

d) Jessie feels the investment is too expensive and unnecessary.

9. What is the significance of education in Jessie's mission?

a) Education is primarily about passing exams.

b) Education has no impact on community relationships.

c) Education is only important for personal gain.

d) Education is significant as it empowers individuals and fosters community development.

10. What are some potential benefits of a hydro power plant?

a) Some potential benefits of a hydro power plant include renewable energy generation, reduced carbon emissions, reliable electricity supply, and water management.

b) Unreliable energy source

c) Higher greenhouse gas emissions

d) Increased fossil fuel dependency

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. How does Jessie's determination impact her community?

a) Jessie's determination positively impacts her community by inspiring collective action and fostering unity.

b) Jessie's determination leads to community division and conflict.

c) Jessie's determination has no effect on her community.

d) Jessie's determination causes people to withdraw from community activities.

12. What role does skepticism play in the story?

a) Skepticism promotes acceptance of all ideas without question.

b) Skepticism has no impact on the characters' decisions.

c) Skepticism encourages critical thinking and challenges assumptions.

d) Skepticism leads to blind faith in beliefs.

13. What might be some long-term effects of bringing electricity to the village?

a) Decline in local agriculture.

b) Increased reliance on fossil fuels.

c) Higher rates of unemployment.

d) Improved quality of life and economic development.

14. How does the setting of Andaliman Village contribute to the story?

a) The village setting is irrelevant to the character development.

b) The setting of Andaliman Village enhances the story by providing a cultural backdrop that influences character interactions and themes.

c) Andaliman Village is primarily a backdrop for action scenes only.

d) The setting of Andaliman Village has no impact on the story.

15. What qualities make Jessie a determined character?

a) Apathy, lack of ambition, procrastination, and cynicism.

b) Complacency, avoidance, uncertainty, and pessimism.

c) Indecisiveness, distraction, impatience, and negativity.

d) Resilience, focus, persistence, and a positive attitude.

LIVEWORKSHEETS