

2 Personal pronouns

Look at the table and complete the sentences with the missing pronouns.

Osebni zaimki v vlogi osebka	Osebni zaimki v vlogi predmeta
I like Ben.	Ben likes me.
He likes Ben.	Ben likes him.
She likes Ben.	Ben likes her.
It is nice.	Ben likes it.
We like Ben.	Ben likes us.
You like Ben.	Ben likes you.
They like Ben.	Ben likes them.

1 I love them.

- 1 Cheetahs are fantastic. I love
- 2 Eddie and I go to the same school and ... catch the same bus in the morning.
- 3 Where's my rucksack? Can you see ...?
- 4 'Do you know Kate Harper?' – 'Yes, ...'s in my class.'
- 5 Matt's a very good player. I never beat
- 6 I can't do this. Can you help ...?
- 7 We've got some tickets for the film. You can come with
- 8 'Is the film good?' – 'Yes, ...'s very funny.'

3 There is / There are

There's a hole in my shoe.

There are some crisps in the cupboard.

There isn't a TV in our classroom.

There aren't any posters.

Is there a bus stop near here?

Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.

Are there any trains on Sunday?

Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.

Remember!

There are some ...

There aren't any ...

Are there any ...?

A Make complete sentences.

1 There are two emails for you.

1 ... two emails for you.

2 ... a famous cathedral in Barcelona.

3 ... an owl in that tree.

4 ... a gym, a swimming pool and two tennis courts.

5 ... some sandwiches and some apples.

6 ... 26 letters in the English alphabet.