The Picnic Day

One sunny day, a group of children decided to have a picnic. the children were excited. They packed food and drinks for the day.

When they arrived at the park, of the children played soccer. They ran around and had a lot of fun. of the children sat under a big tree, eating their sandwiches and drinking juice. of them brought books and read quietly.

Unfortunately, when it was time to go home, they realized something. one had brought a blanket to sit on! But everyone still had a great time at the picnic.
