

VOCABULARY

Complete the words in the sentences by adding the correct prefix from the table.

bi	dis	over	il	im
pre	re	under	un	in

1. This is the mostcomfortable sofa I've ever sat on.
2. His parents have punished him due to his obedience.
3. I can't understand Pam's letter; her handwriting is definitelylegible.
4. In the 19th century most people couldn't read or write; they wereliterate.
5. Patrick used to be rather rude andpolite as a child, but now he's a kind teenager.
6. Some parts of this region haven't got many people. They'repopulated.
7. I can't believe what you say. In fact, I think this is the mostbelievable story you've ever told.
8. Sorry, but what you propose is possible.
9. My parents were completelysatisfied with my school results.
10. She needs to see a psychiatrist. We think she's goingsane.

Complete the sentences by using a word with a suffix that can be formed from the one in brackets.

1. Not all snakes are _____ (danger) to human beings.
2. Once again he's proving himself to be a player of great _____ (able).
3. The police took quick _____ (act) to deal with the robbery.
4. I find the constant barking of the neighbour's dog an _____ (annoy).
5. He is always worried about his _____ (appear).
6. He was rushed to the hospital but was dead on _____ (arrive).
7. We must pay _____ (attend) in class.
8. We pay our telephone bill at the _____ (begin) of the month.
9. The naughty boys were punished for their bad _____ (behave).
10. Saving a drowning man is regarded by most as an act of _____ (brave).