The White Family

Percy White arrived in Leeds in 1930 with his parents and his three sisters. He was then an eighteen year old boy. Soon, he found a job as an orderly in the local hospital. There he met Mary Ann Carrington who worked as a nurse. They fell in love with each other and got (1) a few months later. However, they only got (2) in 1935. Right before the war, Mary White got (3) for the first time. Their first child, a(n) (4) who they called Louise was born in July 1940. After the war, Mary gave (5) to two more children - Chris, born in 1946 and Samuel, born in 1949. Time went by and soon the Whites' children grew up. In 1966, Chris introduced his (6) Angela Lee to his parents and announced that their (7) would take place the following year. The youngest of the Whites' children, Samuel, was the next to enter into (8). Samuel and Nancy's ceremony took place in a lovely country church and the (9) lasted two days and nights. They invited more than a hundred (10) and friends to enjoy the time with them.
