

VERBS + Prepositions 1

1. He had to adapt _____ the new environment quickly.
2. Everyone admired her _____ her bravery in the situation.
3. The project is aimed _____ improving public safety.
4. She hinted _____ the possibility of changing her job.
5. They all laughed _____ his silly joke.
6. John decided to abstain _____ drinking alcohol during the event.
7. Could you add this _____ the list of things to do?
8. I must apologize _____ the inconvenience caused.
9. He had to borrow money _____ his parents.
10. The law prohibits minors _____ buying alcohol.
11. Sunscreen will help protect you _____ sunburn.
12. We will arrive _____ the station in 10 minutes.
13. She was patiently waiting _____ her turn.
14. I need to talk _____ you about something important.
15. He wished _____ a better future for his children.
16. Do you agree _____ the terms of the contract?
17. She plans to apply _____ a scholarship next year.
18. They managed to bring _____ an important issue at the meeting.
19. The prisoners tried to escape _____ the high-security facility.
20. This decision will lead _____ major changes in the company.
21. Please listen _____ the instructions carefully.
22. We should arrive _____ the office by noon.
23. He felt the need to apologize _____ her after the argument.
24. This book belongs _____ my sister.
25. Can I ask _____ your advice on this matter?
26. He will graduate _____ university next year.
27. She glanced _____ her watch nervously.
28. The teacher blamed the students _____ not doing their homework.
29. They managed to hide _____ the police in the forest.
30. Can you guess _____ the answer to this puzzle?
31. Please refer _____ the manual for further instructions.

32. I haven't received a reply _____ my email yet.
33. He needs to speak _____ his manager about the issue.
34. I need to talk _____ you later about this.
35. The committee consented _____ the proposed changes.

Ms. Minh Ha - 0982194748